

Training

Last Updated Sunday, 17 May 2009

Trained Lodge members are informed Lodge members. Informed Lodge members are better Lodge members.

Take advantage of the following opportunities:

OATC at the Blue Grass Council University of Scouting. Register here. Sign up for Lodge Leadership Development. You don't have to be a Lodge Officer or Adviser, anyone can attend.

2009 Conclave. There is a ton of training available at Conclave. From native American dance, to how to produce an effective newsletter, to Lodge budgets, they teach it all. Sign up for Conclave here.

2009 NOAC hosted at Indiana State University. This is a national gathering of thousands of Arrowmen and will include qualified training and fun things to do. You get watch native American dance, scuba dive in a pool, or even just hang out! It's up to you! Sign up by clicking here.

And, of course, a great way to learn more about Kawida Lodge and the Order of the Arrow is to attend lodge events. Check the calendar for the next event coming soon!

Check back often for more training opportunities.
